

DEMENTIA CARE: LIVING WELL AS DEMENTIA PROGRESSES

NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY

PARTICIPANT BIOGRAPHIES

 A woman with short brown hair and glasses, wearing a colorful patterned shirt, sitting in a room with a fireplace in the background.	Bev Hope is the manager of Summerhill Care home in Northumberland.
 A man with short dark hair, wearing a blue checkered shirt, sitting in a room with a window in the background.	Dr Christopher Massey is a consultant old age psychiatrist with Northumberland Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust. He is part of the SEED research team and is involved in training healthcare professionals.
 A young woman with long blonde hair, wearing a white sleeveless top, sitting in a room with a window and framed pictures in the background.	Donna Coxford is a Senior Care Worker at Castleview Care Home in Northumberland.
 A woman with short grey hair, wearing a blue and yellow striped shirt, sitting against a plain light blue background.	Dorothy Matthews is a Macmillan Clinical Nurse Specialist Palliative Care Nurse for Learning Disabilities with Northumberland Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust.
 An elderly woman with white hair and glasses, wearing a blue patterned shirt, sitting next to an elderly man with white hair, wearing a blue checkered shirt, both sitting on a grey couch against a plain light blue background.	Joan and Peter care for Joan's mum.

	John cared for his father in law. He also does voluntary work with a Motor Neurone Disease organisation.
	Julie Young is an Advanced Nurse Practitioner with Northumberland Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust. She was a Dementia Nurse Specialist for the SEED project.
	Dr Kathryn Hall is a Macmillan GP and GP Clinical Lead for Palliative Care.
	Lee Curtis is a Clinical Lead with Northumberland Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust.
	Libby is a carer for her dad and mum. She is also undertaking her own study into improving dementia care.
	Professor Dame Louise Robinson is your Course Leader. She is a Professor of Primary Care and Ageing, Director of Newcastle University Institute for Ageing and a GP specialising in dementia care.

Dr Lynne Corner is Director of Engagement, Faculty of Medical Sciences, Newcastle University. She leads Voice and other organisations which promote the views of older people and people with dementia at Newcastle University.

Pam Ransom is a Palliative Care Clinical Lead with Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust.

Sharron Tolman is a Consultant Admiral Nurse with Dementia UK.

Val cares for her husband.